Rhino AcousticsMaxxHorn and BassMaxxMaxxHorn Immersion LoudspeakerBassMaxx horn sub in backgroundRhino Acoustics brought their newest creation to GPAF - A home hifi speaker called Immersion. Not only did it sound great, but it looked stunning. Rhino Acoustics is best known for their BassMaxx prosound horn subwoofers, and they brought one of those to GPAF too. The Immersion sounded just fine without a sub, but what's the fun in that? Click photo for larger view
