If Bill is a funny bastard, it would explain why he and I are good friends. Actually, I like when you have get-togethers without all the "everything must be perfect" attitude. I am not ready for prime time, when Bill and I have ideas, we bounce them off each other. We have the luxury of being ultra-critical in our opinions for the betterment of the hobby, then we tip a beer and tell lies for awhile to have a good time.Ron
