Wow! That's really cool stuff!There's a guy here in Tulsa that does an excellent job of reconing JBL speakers. If I ever have someone looking for refurbs, I always check his shop 'cause I know he gets good stuff and does an excellent job of remanufacturing drivers. Anyway, this guy has literally dozens of McIntosh amps in perfect shape. It's incredible!Your sound gear looks great. One of these times, I'd sure love to come visit you. So one of these times, you might be surprised to find me at "Replay Electronics!"
