Subject: 1 More thing
Posted by Paul C. on Sun, 07 Jul 2002 01:27:08 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Oh, sorry, forgot... if you really want to give your speakers and amp a break, with NO audible difference, put a sharp high pass filter in there, cutting out sounds below about 25 hz. Nothing musical there, but you will stop the woofer from bouncing around from popping electric bass strings, warps in vinyl LP's, and other noise. The music will sound the same.