We have a new TV show previewing for the 1st time tonight, its called 'Theres Something About Miriam'. It is a show where they have a transexual male, like really transexual looks very much like a women and he/she (whatever !!!) goes around trying to pick up men and date them etc but the transexual doesnt tell the men that he is really a man and its supposed to go on for a long time, maybe the whole series. So the guys are tricked forever into thinking that they are dating a women when they arnt. Something like that, I havnt seen it yet it starts tonight. But it must have been a long time, cuz when the men found out they had been tricked they sued the production company $305,000 :P
