It's been raining from Austin to Tulsa the past day or two and I was worried that we might still have rain Friday, which is when the Prosound Shootout is scheduled. Thankfully, the forecast is for sunny skies and 68°.

The weather was excellent! We got lots of good photos and measurements of everything that was there: a Cerwin Vega L36, Fitzmaurice Tuba 36, JBL SRX 728S, Soundbridge Xyon 9000, the photos and test results uploaded by the first of the week.
