The Great Plains Audio Club meeting will be held at 3:00pm September 25th at Link Alley's house in Woodward, Oklahoma. I'm going to be there for sure, and I plan to ride my motorcycle from Tulsa if the weather is nice. I'd love to have others ride with me, so let me know if you're interested. We also might want to arrange a car or two for carpooling. I'd love to see Fred and the Texas folks there too!

Thanks for thinking about me, but it's a bit too far from Houston. The DFW-area audiophools might be interested if they knew about it. Link might want to mention it on the Bottlehead forum and the Audio Karma events forum.

Hi Fred,I understand - It is a bit far from Houston. Dallas to Woodward is no further than Tulsa to Woodward but Houston is a bit of a stretch. I'd like to see you guys though.One of these days, I hope we all pool together and form a South Central Audiofest, maybe in Dallas or somewhere that is convenient for Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana. I think that would be excellent.Wayne

Hi Wayne,I am interested in going to the Great plains audio meeting. I am located close to Tulsa and I would be happy to drive my car. I have room for three people to ride with me from Tulsa, so anyone interested can contact me at nwwdlw@netzero.net to make arrangements.We will need to set up a central location to launch from, any ideas?I am looking forward to meeting all that will attend, this will be my first meeting.See you there!Norris Wilson

Hi Norris,That's cool.  We could all plan to meet downtown somewhere at noon.  Then again, I don't want anyone leaving their cars in an unsafe place.  Let's see how many people plan to go and we'll decide where to meet when it gets closer to the 25th.Wayne
