I second the vote for Bruce's OddWatt amps. Great sound, great bargain. I was quite impressed. Check 'em out.

Remember the Stoetkits, anyone? These are even better, no kidding.

Another must is Uriah's Lighter Note. That thing is freaking awesome. Not only is it dead black quiet, but now it has a multi-input switcher and groovy-cool remote.

I don't normally post personal opinions of other people's rooms or gear. But I have to bend the rules for those guys, 'cause you just gotta know - Put them on your short list of things to look into. For sure.
