OK. I've resent. Let me know if you receive the plans or not. If not, perhaps you can give me an alternate E-Mail address and we'll try that.

I just received an error for the E-Mails I sent you with the plans. It says there is no user with this address, so I guess something is wrong. Did you mis-type your E-Mail address perhaps?

I've resent the plans to the new E-Mail address you've given. As for user updating information, please see my reply to you in the post above.
