Hello,Can you try resending, I never received your e-mail. I tried to edit my e-mail address after my first request. Doesn't appear personal info can be edited once you have registered? At least not very easily. Thanks.Will

I'd be happy to resend the plans. Lets cross our fingers and hope that the address works out.As for editing your information - It's easy to do, all except your password. Changing your E-Mail address is a simple matter of typing in the new one. The system will remember the new one until you change it again or delete the cookies.
