Looking forward to a great weekend away from family, work and anything else that can add stress to a guy's life. Don't get me wrong. I love my wife and kids but next weekend it's just me and a couple close friends taking to the woods and enjoying the great outdoors. Anyone else out there look forward to time away from everything with a couple close friends or even alone.

I love weekends away but I haven't had one in years. I could use one! I'm sure your wife understands how this weekend will be good for you, and hopefully she'll take one soon too.
