Yesterday we had grass. Lots and lots of it. Today, it is once again buried under a mound of cold, white snow. Doesn't Mother Nature know that it is mid-March?

We've had some unusually cool weather extending into March here, too, although it hasn't been nearly cold enough for more snow. I wish spring would get here already!

Lucky for us when it snowed this past week it did not stick. I'm tired of it. I can't wait to see the green grass. Right now our grass is kind of brown! I am ready for warmer weather.
