Got stuffed on another eBay purchase. Bought a pair of 18 inch Altecs (3182). Both look fine but one has a bad cone rub.Orange County Speaker says they can't help me - no parts available. Great Plains Audio has screwed me but good in the past, I wouldn't go back to them on a bet.Any alternatives? Any chance of removing the gasket, loosening the surround (rolled foam) somehow and recentering the cone?Or just suck it up, eat worms and die?

Call David Miller at Speakerworks, (918) 664-6299. Run this by him and see what he has to say.

Thanks, Wayne. I'll give it a shot.
