Someone recently recommended Klipsch speakers to me for our next big-ticket stereo purchase. Can anyone here vouch for the brand? Also, I see a lot of variance in price. Some speakers run a few hundred dollars while others are in the thousands. On a budget of about a grand, can I get something worthwhile?

I can't vouch for the brand from personal experience but my stepfather is a big fan of Klipsch. He has Klipsch speakers in his living room now but I have no idea how much they cost. I'd say his setup was at least a thousand dollars.
