Looks like the Hester-Daniels Estate Audio-Fest to me.....*Colin, left, opens with a joke, Tim and Ron don't get it:ColinHester, Zincman and guess who?Colin has multiple audio rigs but the kids have to go without shoes; you should have seen the poor, starving little Dickens tear into the potato chips! "Please sir, may I have another?"Here we have the VOTT's, Colins own built Guinivere pre-amp and Para-S.E.X. amps, Cayin and Almorro integrateds and a really neat Shang Li (?) CD player with a little universe on exhibit in it's front windowColin and his wife, the lovely and talented Anne- I can get you a deal on copper- Marie were the kind of people you become friends with in an afternoon.The A-7's really sounded great with whichever amps were used but we were having such a good time talking and playing with the Four Little Hesters we didn't listen all that critically.A great day for Ron and I. Thanks Colin.

Well gents even though I could not spend too much time it was great to meet and greet you. I am sure I could have kept you entranced for hours with my audio knowledge NOT!!!!!! Colin and his wife were very gracious host and the children were wonderful. But BEER and BOXES were also outstanding, hope I can get some time off soon and hear some more.Tim

Bill I picked up some of that top secret super duper cable from Wal Mart, I will never doubt you again Now where do I find an SET amp for the same bargain price?????? By the way I am currently listening to my A7's with new wire, with a Berning OTL amp, a big 1/2 watt and WOW. Now if I can find one to buy for $8.95 I am in there.
