I have started a page as I suggested below, sorted by forum moniker. http://home.iprimus.com.au/gradds/DIY1.htmlIt only has a few on it at the moment, I'm sorry if i missed anyone who should have been on the first draft ;-)I can only add and amend if I have information send to me, preferrably by email. So if you want your site listed, send me the info please.TIA AG

Andy,If you're looking for more links to add to your list, you might want to look at this URL:http://members.chello.se/jpo/diy.htmlThis guy has one of the best lists of DIY speaker links I've seen on the net.  Lots and lots of personal pages which I've found very inspiring for my own projects.  I've also put a clickable link to the page below.Regards,Colin
