Yes, although the SEX amp was a prototype, I believe it was totallystock. I found it to be quieter than Doc's 300B amps. Heck, for theprice it is astounding. People fell in love with the sound it put out. A really great amp. I would crank it up all the way and no onecould hear anything except dead dark quiet with their up to the drivers on the Lowthers--and they were 101 db eff.Regards,Lew
