Hey, I just learned some trivial trivia on the History Channel. Did you know that the original name for the Pontiac Firebird was the "Banshee?" John DeLorean had designed a two-seater and GM axed it, forcing him to make a four-seater to compete with the Mustang. It was to use the same chassis as the Camero but DeLorean pushed for use of a larger 400 CID engine. Along the line, the "Banshee" name was also dropped and "Firebird" was chosen instead. Pretty cool little factoid, huh?
