No, no, not the bar in Star Wars. This one had the spiky punk kid embracing the greaser when the Indians won? That's the near west side of Cleveland. Still today. And there are head shops and used record stores still. Indeed, 'Play It Again Sam', one of my SATurday stops has been in business for 30 years selling only used equipment from Nikko integrateds thru Pioneer 2 man lift receivers and , in the holy of holies, the back room has all the 60's and 70's Fisher, Scott and Mac stuff in pristine condiiton drivng Altec, JBL, Fried and Dahlquist speakers. And 2 of those spiky hair twenty-somethings are in a totally outfitted bench area working on these relics. You should hear then talk drivers and crossovers!
