Please let me know if you have any questions. This is really worth the trouble and is really cool. All sorts of cool shows from allsorts of classic and current performers. I had tons of questions about this, as I am not the most computer savvy person, but someone I work with is in a major way, and they spoon fed me all this. I'm almost 50 and I've found sound boards of concerts I attended at 19! (thankyou Hottiemagnet) In fact three different versions of the same show!Very cool stuff,Russellc
