If the table is offered for sale on his site , yes. If only a "picture from his gallery" no. At least not directly, but since the site does offer turntables for sale, its close. but if only a gallery picture that someone out there sent in, closer to eye candy. If this is going to be offered for sale, yes. Most of the gallery pictures are of tables belonging to various hobbyists. This table belongs to him. How about it vinyle asylum, is this going up for sale?Russellc
