No, that was "MYMUSICFIX" that does the "ONE TIME" deal.  Redtrumpet appears to be a straightup outfit who stands behind their stuff. sorry for the miscommunication, I was fearing they all were similar in policy but not redtrumpet.  they immediately emailed me that a new one was not only sent out, but checked it out before sending it.  I just don't use mymusicfix anymore, or at least until they stand behind what they sell, instead of their intertnet store. Usedseemsto vary greatly wih where you are.  My friends in seattle are awash in inexpensive used vinyl. again, redtrumpet is gold with me!russellc
