Bill, did you buy out the nation's complete supply? If Wal Mart doesn't have it then who does? I suppose I'll just have to be satisfied with the roll of Parts Express Sound Kink ofc that I already have on a shelf somewhere. But I still have to wonder if I shouldn't splurge for a couple of rolls of Apex Jr's 16ga silver-plated teflon-insulated wire at 15 cents per foot. I could wire the new arrays for about $30. Of course that's a lot of money for wire, but I'm a patrician sort of guy.
