Hey, I made CES audio coverage! Havnt seen any other info and I highly doubt AA would allow such a picture. Just got back from Italy last night. spent the week in Vicenza for the Vicenza Oro show. This is the CES of the Jewelry industry. Lots of new and interesting things there too. The food was good, my friends there are good and the weather was around 40 which was a little warmer then the northeast is now! The down side, I was pretty sick all week and just starting to get better even now. Time to clear the driveway now. Great to be homeBill
