Subject: Denon DP-300F
Posted by Michael M on Wed, 25 Apr 2007 15:32:45 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I got this Denon a few months ago, and more recently its begun sounding a bit off. Certain frequencies - basically higher treble - sound scratchy and muddled, almost as though my stylus is dusty (but its not). This happens with virtually all of my records, independent of how clean they are. I've called Denon and they don't seem to have much of an answer. Thoughts?