Hey cool forum, but it looks a little slow!I need to research an old Crown 2 track (no model name on front)I will take out tonight and get the info off the chassis.Jemah Services website seems to be gone. Are they still in biz?I also have a big Teac, a half dozen Roberts/Akai 770 type decks,an Otari 2track, a couple of Sony's, a Revox A77. I purchasedone of the Roberts new in 1967. Plus a bunch of Cassettes fromNak, Marantz, Tascam... and a couple of Tascam DAT machines.All my reel to reel stuff has been in storage for a while(except the otari). I have just taken it all out and am inthe process of getting things going again.I am also considering picking up an RT-909 for the living roomsystem. That's how I found this forum.Yeah, I guess I love tape Are there any other tape recorder forums or good resources?Thanks in advance.
