Hey cool forum, but it looks a little slow!! I need to research an old Crown 2 track (no model name on front) I will take out tonight and get the info off the chassis. Jemah Services website seems to be gone. Are they still in biz? I also have a big Teac, a half dozen Roberts/Akai 770 type decks, an Otari 2track, a couple of Sony's, a Revox A77. I purchased one of the Roberts new in 1967. Plus a bunch of Cassettes from Nak, Marantz, Tascam... and a couple of Tascam DAT machines. All my reel to reel stuff has been in storage for a while (except the Otari). I have just taken it all out and am in the process of getting things going again. I am also considering picking up an RT-909 for the living room system. That's how I found this forum. Yeah, I guess I love tape. Are there any other tape recorder forums or good resources? Thanks in advance.
