I wonder if this is the reason Frank Rosalino killed himself (?) This brings back some impressions--- can't really say memories cuz I was a kid then. Lots of tiki bar records-- a fad that was before my time but has come back thanks to cover art by Brian Setzer as an example. I believe it is called kitch. But _good_ kitch. It would be a marketing disaster but what they ought to do is make Big covers for small cds. Then you could read the liner notes again. lon
