Subject: Cassettes No Longer Being Stocked? Posted by Ricardo on Thu, 10 May 2007 10:58:22 GMT

I read today that major stores will no longer be stocking cassette tapes. I guess it's time to stop, but I do have some nostalgia for cassettes. I used to store digital memory on them from a Sequential Circuits Prophet 600 synthesizer and Drumtrak drum machine, too. Is everybody here ready to say goodbye to the format?
