

---

Subject: Music

Posted by Manualblock on Thu, 18 Dec 2003 03:45:21 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Sorry to post more than once in a day but I feel my Pi4's have really broken in after 2 months and tonight I listened. No equipment story just music, opened with Terry Allen Flatlands Boogie and boogie they did, Guy Clark "To live is to Fly", there is a line in the song, "I'll miss the system here/ The bottoms deep and the treble's clear", courtesy Townes Van Zandt, The other Ones version of "Friend of the devil", J.J. Cale Live, "Call me the breeze", Jerry Jeff Walker, with Dylans "One too many morning's", from the live album. Delbert M'clintons, "Poncho and lefty", Los Lobos, "Saint behind the Glass", from the live album, Bruce Cockburn, "The whole night sky", Yougbloods, "Ride the Wind" and on and on, Thanks Pi Forum and all, It don't get better.

---