He He. I take back what i said about older electronics not being as good as newer. I should have said MOST older electronics. The combo is FABUulous, even unmodded. Knocks my NADc541i & sony XA20ES out the water in terms of reduced digital glare (at last i know what glare IS and what all these analog maniacs have been griping about!!)Will mod the DAC in summer. The transport does not need mods. off to enjoy my new source..-akhilesh
