This is another one where I hemmed and hawed over whether or not to post about it. On the one hand, it's Audio Note, on the other, it's a separate enterprise, not one I have anything to do with or have anything to gain from promoting it.Anyhow, if you visit audionotekits.com, you'll see that the DAC kit is back, along with several amp kits, a preamp kit, speaker kits now available with precut cabinet option . . .Wayne, if this is too close to self-promotion, feel free to kill it.
