This is another one where I hemmed and hawed over whether or not to post about it. On the one hand, it's Audio Note, on the other, it's a separate enterprise, not one I have anything to do with or have anything to gain from promoting it. Anyhow, if you visit audionotekits.com, you'll see that the DAC kit is back, along with several amp kits, a preamp kit, speaker kits now available with precut cabinet option . . . Wayne, if this is too close to self-promotion, feel free to kill it.
