Thanks LeRoy,I found the plans for the Gemini's on the internet.I have a freind who was looking to build a pair of floor standing cabinets for the Gemini's. But, after some research uncovered a major problem with the added baffle, one that would be hard to repair with out compromising other areas performance, the projet was scrapped.So, quit digging for those plans, unless you think you will find a gem that has been hiding while digging.Take care and thanks again.Norris
