Hi all,I was directed here by a friend. Nice site!Listen, I have a couple projects I am working on right now. One is a very high end speaker, the other a little more reasonably priced. I am thinking of making them a sort of DIY/hobby/side business thing, but right now I'm just looking at them to fill my needs, which are (high end) home theater and (reasonably priced) office background music system.Now to my question. What is the best price no object dome tweeter you can think of? What about under $100? Under $30?Thanks in advance,Dave
