

---

Subject: Yes, but...

Posted by Bill Fitzmaurice on Fri, 06 Aug 2004 15:13:13 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

high frequencies will go around corners if the corners are properly constructed. The Huygen's theoretical concept of flat reflectors at a 45 degree angle is inherently flawed; John Sheerin's modeling with rounded bends is correct, result verified in the real world by my Snail and DR horns.

---