Doing some heavy research into opinions on the Welborne DRD300, AudioNote Kit 1 and Bottleneck Paraglow. Narrowed down to those 3 based mainly on resale value. I really want to build from scratch but I'm too fickle to hang on and too poor to take another beating.Zillions of posts.At least 1/3 and may be more replies to "which sounds better" or "have you heard the 2",etc are "I haven;t heard either, but....."Every thread there's one or two or more people compelled to post even w/o any opinion of their own!"I've never heard the Pimpernel X-1000 so I'm qualified to say...."
