Well, go to the great plaines audio site (Altec repair and sales of there version of altec drivers, very nice) scroll down to the altec forum, then go to a post entitled Photo phun with VOTT 210, or something like that. There is tons of stuff on the web apparently the slot car craze is being rekindled by those of us who were into it as kids, and many new people a well. I just bought two big sets to combine for a giagantic 4- lane...I can almost smell the wintergreen oil!Russellc
