With significant others (Tim, that would be the one you sleep with - or used to) and kids is fine with me. Let's try to nail a day down in the next couple of weeks. Mid to end of July works for me. We're hosting a neighborhood party about this time, and the wife is pushing to get the house ready for that. I have ton of half finished projects to complete, so this should help me get my ass in gear. Right now my gear is set up in a spare bedroom upstairs, but it might be a good time to bring the gear down to the great room and turn it up. Just tell me what I need to supply and I'll have it ready.....Colin
