Had a great evening visiting w/Ron, aka spkerman57 at his place in Columbus. Those who have had the opportunity to visit know what I mean when I say...wow. First off, he has a virtual audio museum of parts, amps, cabinets, it goes on and on.. secondly, great time listening to some awesome horns. While I'd be sleeping on the sofa for a very long time if I tried to duplicate his system in my house, it still sounded outstanding. Now if only I could have hidden some of those 2226's in my car before leaving... anyway, thanks Ron. Great fun!
