I believe you are here for an honest opinion. So I will give it. O think you cold do a lot better in tmers of pure listening pleasure for the money. A tripath chip amp can be bought for $99 (the TEAC) and you can get awesome speakers for $400. There are many available. What you are buying, in my opinion, may give you short term satisfaction, but, may bore you after a while. It certainly won;t move you, again in my opinion. -akhilesh
