hi gang, i heard the most glorious pair of speaks today and now i'm smitten. my friend has homebuilt mjk speakers and they are excellent. i don't want to do woodwork but i maybe could find someone to build the same speakers from martin king plans. what i'd like to know is, how do lothx and cain speakers compare? i'm told the lothx ambience and the cain abby speaks are like these but can be bought whole.
