Be sure and come to GPAF next year. I think it's fair to say we'd all love to hear those speakers of yours, and you'd meet some real friendly folks. The atmosphere is that of a group of intelligent enthusiasts coming together, not overtly commercial like some trade shows. Most of us pay little attention to magazine reviews or emotional arguments, we're more impressed with the bottom line. So I hope you can come next year and we all can see and hear your speakers.
