Subject: my tone.... Posted by Ed Schilling on Wed, 03 Aug 2005 12:43:28 GMT View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Please do not mistake my writing style for having a nasty tone to it. The way I ask questions and reply sometimes is taken "the wrong way". I even see how that could be so when I go back later and read my own stuff! There was no "tone" intended in Page 1 and 2....please don't think I intended anything other than to try to answer the questions as I see it. For the record Martin, I can see how you'd be skeptical of my claims.....but that's OK too!Ed
