
Subject: Re: Horns, transmission lines and reflex cabinets
Posted by Wayne Parham on Thu, 11 Aug 2005 10:16:12 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

A backhorn is primarily internded to bring up the bass level to match that of the midband. Output from the front is direct radiation, so no efficiency increase or directivity gain is possible.
