I really would like a set of the Heresy's some day when I have the extra cash. I chose some Polk Audio 5B's over them back in the early 80's. I still use those Polks all the time in our living room. Still sound quite nice for a little 2 way.I need to quit lookin' and just build me a set of big Pi's, some of Akhilesh's PAWO horns, and one of Jim's dipole speakers that FredT just finished. Then I'd have a little of everything except a line array which is just off in dreamleand anyway.
