Subject: A few words of thanks

Posted by admin on Sun, 11 Sep 2005 07:53:44 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Today is the 4th anniversary of the September 11th attack in New York City. Of course, our thoughts are with the family and friends of those lost in the towers.Our thoughts also turn to others that are in need. We think about those caught in the hurricane in the southern states. September 11th is rapidly turning into a rememberence day for Americans, almost like a second Memorial Day.We at AudioRoundTable.com would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone that has helped bring this website into existance, and who nurture it and help it grow. Thanks for donating your money and your time, and for making this website a fun and friendly place. It has brought a bit of relief, comradeship and useful information to us all.Thanks to all the sponsors and individual contributors who have provided guidance and resources, thanks to the moderators who have given their time and patience and thanks to all the regular participants who have come together to make this a wonderful community. As the events of life unfold, we've all met here and walked together, though we're miles and sometimes continents apart.AudioRoundTable.com SponsorsBOI AudioworksBrines AcousticsBill Fitzmaurice LoudspeakersPi SpeakersSelectronicTriode & Co.Vacuum Tube ValleyIndividual Contributors in 2005Akhilesh BajajDavid CopeBill EpsteinYury GaletskyColin HesterJohn LapaireAdrian MackMark MargiottamanualblockBill WassilakwunhuangloIndividual contributors making donations of $500.00 in a year or more are shown above with a violet listing. Those giving $100.00 or more are shown in blue and $50.00 or more are shown in grey. People that give up to $50.00 are listed in standard type. Note T-Shirts (shown below) are mailed in the 48 continental US for a minimum $25.00 contribution. We apologize to our valued participants in other parts of the world, but a minimum $35.00 contribution is required to cover postage elsewhere.