

---

Subject: one of the first

Posted by lcholke on Tue, 28 Jun 2005 02:30:43 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Hil saw this done in an old AES paper in the 1-25 audio anthology collection.(1962) It is still a clever idea. They used fiber glass. It must have worked for them to publish and install in a church. Their final unit was usable from 300 to 10khz with eq. The other old way is to rotate the drivers around a pole.-Linc

---