Well; for your sake my friend I am glad to hear that. Being in the business you have a better perspective than I do. I hope everyone is experiencing the same situation; it would be a sad day to see people have economic problems in the hobby. I was re-acting to Dr. Lee's essay but maybe that was an isolated instance; hopefully. The really odd thing about this thread is how many folks are posting at 3am..does this mean something?? I was asleep and AC; my dog jumped up into the bed and squished between myself and the wife..he thinks he owns the place. He's looking up at me with his head on the pillow.
