I wrote this message but no one has answered.Do you know about this audix room 15? I think from the website audix has only one building i wilsnvile oregon U.S.A. but the room 15 is the name of another place which a friend worker from before said to me is where audix makes the most development work of their microphones, but it is not he thinks in the 6000 meter building but maybe in another state of california or nevada mabe. Does anyone know about this place they call room 15?thank you very much
